

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

Social Justice Computing

The undersigned, intending to form a Virginia nonstock corporation pursuant to Chapter 10 of Title 13.1 of the Code of Virginia, state(s) as follows:

ARTICLE I CORPORATE NAME

The name of the corporation is Social Justice Computing

ARTICLE II PURPOSES

The core purpose of Social Justice Computing centers around utilizing information technology as a transformative tool to support and fulfill the 17 United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). This involves creating innovative IT solutions and services specifically designed to address global challenges outlined in these goals, such as poverty, inequality, climate change, environmental degradation, peace, and justice.

The organization will actively engage in the design, development, and deployment of IT products, services, and platforms that directly contribute to these goals. This includes, but is not limited to, developing educational technologies that enhance access to quality education for underprivileged communities, creating healthcare information systems that improve health outcomes, and designing digital tools that support sustainable cities and communities.

Additionally, Social Justice Computing plans to foster a collaborative environment by partnering with a variety of stakeholders, including NGOs, government bodies, educational institutions, and community groups. Through these collaborations, the organization aims to amplify the impact of IT in addressing social justice issues. This collaboration might involve cross-sector partnerships to develop comprehensive solutions that tackle complex social issues.

Moreover, Social Justice Computing will focus on advocacy and public engagement activities, aiming to raise awareness about the potential of IT in advancing social justice. This could involve organizing campaigns, producing educational content, and participating in policy dialogues to influence how technology is used in the pursuit of social justice.

LIMITATIONS AND RESTRICTIONS

Social Justice Computing is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, including making distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. No part of the net earnings of Social Justice Computing shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its directors, members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by any organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Social Justice Computing is not organized and shall not be operated for the private gain of any person. The corporation's property is irrevocably dedicated to its educational and charitable purposes. No part of the corporation's assets, receipts, or net earnings shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to any individual. The corporation may, however, pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, and make other payments and distributions consistent with these Articles.

No other officer or director of this corporation shall be personally liable for the debts or obligations of Social Justice Computing of any nature whatsoever, nor shall any of the property or assets of the officers or directors be subject to the payment of the debts or obligations of this corporation. No substantial part of the corporation's activities shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene (including the publishing or distribution of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (1) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax as an organization described by Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (2) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE VIII
DISSOLUTION

In the event of the dissolution of the Corporation, the assets, and property belonging to it shall be distributed to such organizations as may be designated by the Board of Directors, provided that such organizations shall have tax-exempt status under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or under the comparable provisions of the then-current Federal Revenue Law.

ARTICLE IX
PROCEDURES FOR AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended by a majority of the directors then in office at any meeting of the Board of Directors if at least thirty (30) days written notice is given of intention to amend the Articles of Incorporation at such regular or special meeting.
